We are very pleased to announce that Investmark Advisory Group achieved recognition in the Financial Times today with inclusion in their “Financial Times 300” list recognizing the top 300 Registered Investment Advisers nationwide. Investmark takes great pride in our commitment to helping our clients pursue their financial goals and it is a great validation that this has translated into a successful firm with clients who are comfortable introducing us to their friends, colleagues and family members.

CEO and Managing Principal Michael Kusick said “We are very proud to be recognized in the FT300 - Especially the fact that we are one of only 5 firms in CT to receive this distinction. However, at the end of the day what truly matters to me is that Investmark continues to earn a place on our client’s list of trusted advisors for many years to come.”
